TOPIC	c. mecingal primary, 1979.	10	Sincur	App (dvedSHd):Rd@alse 200 East Gormany	COUNTRY
EVALUATION 25A FA PLACE OBTAINED 21 July 1953 DATE OF CONTENT DATE OBTAINED 25X1A REFERENCES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE). REMARKS 25X1X 1. From S to 21 June 1953, Camp Hutweide and Camp Niederschlag were still occupied by 1400 and 1700 KVP respectively. The troops were restricted to quarters and were alerted on 11 June. No training activity was performed. Each of the motor vehicles of the units were guarded by two men armed with submachine guns. 2. During the night on 20 June, about 250 soldiers stationed at Camp Nieder were employed in Berlin. They had to comb out the homesteaders area wes Hermann Straske toward Frohnau. 3. On 25 June, the KVP installation in Nostock was about 90 percent vacated The troops quartered there were allegedly employed to reinforce the border guard details in the area of Wismar and had not yet returned on) : Broadline district co.	25X1A			• 1
EVALUATION 25A FA PLACE OBTAINED 21 July 1953 DATE OF CONTENT DATE OBTAINED 25X1A REFERENCES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE). REMARKS 25X1X 1. From S to 21 June 1953, Camp Hutweide and Camp Niederschlag were still occupied by 1400 and 1700 KVP respectively. The troops were restricted to quarters and were alerted on 11 June. No training activity was performed. Each of the motor vehicles of the units were guarded by two men armed with submachine guns. 2. During the night on 20 June, about 250 soldiers stationed at Camp Nieder were employed in Berlin. They had to comb out the homesteaders area wes Hermann Straske toward Frohnau. 3. On 25 June, the KVP installation in Nostock was about 90 percent vacated The troops quartered there were allegedly employed to reinforce the border guard details in the area of Wismar and had not yet returned on	· ····································	DEV4A	HENDRICH RESERVING THE PROPERTY AND	Lydn of 715 months bett hundrated and anti-statement of the hundred above of the statement of the statement of	Control of the symptotic party for the symptotic party for the symptotic party.
DATE OBTAINED 25X1A REFERENCES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE). REMARKS 25X1X 25X1X 25X1X 1. From S to 21 June 1953, Camp Hutweide and Camp Niederschlag were still occupied by 1400 and 1700 KVP respectively. The troops were restricted to quarters and were alerted on 11 June. No training activity was performed. Each of the motor vehicles of the units were guarded by two men armed with submachine guns. 2. During the night on 20 June, about 250 soldiers stationed at Camp Nieder were employed in Berlin. They had to comb out the homesteaders' area wes Hermann Strasbe toward Frohnau. 1 3. On 25 June, the KVP installation in Nostock was about 90 nercent vacated The troops quartered there were allegedly employed to reinforce the border guard details in the area of Wismar and had not yet returned on	-		E OBTAINED		X1A
DATE OBTAINED	an Communication (CE			1
PAGES		agadinganisist nasarin kentak nagatara at angat satistak namin sistem nasarin menasarin menasari mendebak naga		25X1A
REMARKS 25X1X 1. From 3 to 21 June 1953, Camp Butweide and Camp Niederschlag were still occupied by 1400 and 1700 kVP respectively. The troops were restricted to querters and were alerted on 11 June. No training activity was performed. Each of the motor vehicles of the units were guarded by two men armed with submachine guns. 2. During the night on 20 June, about 250 soldiers stationed at Camp Nieder, were employed in Perlin. They had to comb out the homesteaders' area wes Hermann Strasbe toward Frohnau. 1 2. On 25 June, the kVP installation in Bostock was about 90 percent vacated The troops quartered there were allegedly employed to reinforce the border guard details in the area of Wismar and had not yet returned on
25X1X 1. From 8 to 21 June 1953, Camp Hutweide and Camp Niederschlag were still occupied by 1400 and 1700 KVP respectively. The troops were restricted to querters and were alerted on 11 June. No training activity was performed. Each of the motor vehicles of the units were guarded by two men arried with submachine guns. 2. During the night on 20 June, about 250 soldiers stationed at Camp Nieder were employed in Berlin. They had to comb out the homesteaders' area west Hermann Strasse toward Frohnau. 3. On 25 June, the KVP installation in Bostock was about 90 percent vacated The troops quartered there were allegedly employed to reinforce the border guard details in the area of Wismar and had not yet returned on	A-10. Agricultural Principal	antho pay yin sainiyinkayinka, diiriykan aaraalahaaliyaa eelaanaan bilaanaan eela eelke cooliiskii.	E) 4- approximation of the second statements as the object of the second	ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE	PAGES
25X1X 1. From S to 21 June 1953, Camp Hutweide and Camp Niederschlag were still occupied by 1400 and 1700 kVP respectively. The troops were restricted to quarters and were alerted on 11 June. No training activity was performed. Each of the motor vehicles of the units were guarded by two men armed with submachine guns. 2. During the night on 20 June, about 250 soldiers stationed at Camp Nieder, were employed in Berlin. They had to comb out the homesteaders area wes Hermann Straske toward Frohnau. 3. On 25 June, the kVP installation in Nostock was about 90 nercent vacated The troops quartered there were allegedly employed to reinforce the border guard details in the area of Wismar and had not yet returned on		Lateral State of the State of t	ing an elementar subsequently element and an element and an element of the second seco		REMARKS
25X1X 1. From S to 21 June 1953, Camp Hutweide and Camp Niederschlag were still occupied by 1400 and 1700 KVP respectively. The troops were restricted to quarters and were alerted on 11 June. No training activity was performed. Each of the motor vehicles of the units were guarded by two men armed with submachine guns. 2. During the night on 20 June, about 250 soldiers stationed at Camp Nieder were employed in Berlin. They had to comb out the homesteaders' area wes Hermann Strasse toward Frohnau. 3. On 25 June, the KVP installation in Rostock was about 90 nercent vacated The troops quartered there were allegedly employed to reinforce the border guard details in the area of Wismar and had not yet returned on	1-en 1000 .00 - 44.0		ant die sie deutschie gegen verschie en gegen entwerp, de per een ste speciele in deutschie deutschie deutschie		An
25X1X 1. From S to 21 June 1953, Camp Hutweide and Camp Niederschlag were still occupied by 1400 and 1700 KVP respectively. The troops were restricted to quarters and were alerted on 11 June. No training activity was performed. Each of the motor vehicles of the units were guarded by two men armed with submachine guns. 2. During the night on 20 June, about 250 soldiers stationed at Camp Nieder were employed in Eerlin. They had to comb out the homesteaders area wes Hermann Strasse toward Frohnau. 3. On 25 June, the KVP installation in Nostock was about 90 percent vacated The troops quartered there were allegedly employed to reinforce the border guard details in the area of Wismar and had not yet returned on		Maka dirak era 1981 ("arcento valonanio raliona artigi estalpatentina Edillitan antifessor accesso delle a catalonia.	andream, plr. van ju van er nyether ekspresser strenderparten er ekske bet de de strende
25X1X 1. From 8 to 21 June 1953, Camp Hutweide and Camp Niederschlag were still occupied by 1400 and 1700 KVP respectively. The troops were restricted to quarters and were alerted on 11 June. No training activity was performed. Each of the motor vehicles of the units were guarded by two men armed with submachine guns. 2. During the night on 20 June, about 250 soldiers stationed at Camp Nieder were employed in Berlin. They had to comb out the homesteaders area were Hermann Strasse toward Frohnau. 3. On 25 June, the KVP installation in Nostock was about 90 nercent vacated The troops quartered there were allegedly employed to reinforce the border guard details in the area of Wismar and had not yet returned on		anners market en	NOW WINDOWS I SUPERIOR THE SAME WAS A MADE TO THE ANALYSIS.	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
25X1X 1. From 8 to 21 June 1953, Camp Hutweide and Camp Niederschlag were still occupied by 1400 and 1700 KVP respectively. The troops were restricted to quarters and were alerted on 11 June. No training activity was performed. Each of the motor vehicles of the units were guarded by two men armed with submachine guns. 2. During the night on 20 June, about 250 soldiers stationed at Camp Nieders were employed in Berlin. They had to comb out the homesteaders' area west Hermann Strasse toward Frohnau. 3. On 25 June, the KVP installation in Nostock was about 90 nercent vacated The troops quartered there were allegedly employed to reinforce the border guard details in the area of Wismar and had not yet returned on			25X1X		CUIBUE
1. From S to 21 June 1953, Camp Hutweide and Camp Niederschlag were still occupied by 1400 and 1700 KVP respectively. The troops were restricted to quarters and were alerted on 11 June. No training activity was performed. Each of the motor vehicles of the units were guarded by two men armed with submachine guns. 2. During the night on 20 June, about 250 soldiers stationed at Camp Nieder were employed in Berlin. They had to comb out the homesteaders' area wes' Hermann Strasse toward Frohnau. 3. On 25 June, the KVP installation in Rostock was about 90 nercent vacated The troops quartered there were allegedly employed to reinforce the border guard details in the area of Wismar and had not yet returned on					SOUNDL
1. From S to 21 June 1953, Camp Hutweide and Camp Niederschlag were still occupied by 1400 and 1700 KVP respectively. The troops were restricted to quarters and were alerted on 11 June. No training activity was performed. Each of the motor vehicles of the units were guarded by two men armed with submachine guns. 2. During the night on 20 June, about 250 soldiers stationed at Camp Nieder were employed in Berlin. They had to comb out the homesteaders' area wes' Hermann Strasse toward Frohnau. 3. On 25 June, the KVP installation in Rostock was about 90 nercent vacated The troops quartered there were allegedly employed to reinforce the border guard details in the area of Wismar and had not yet returned on
27 June . *	tof	homesteaders area west bour 90 nercent vacated to reinforce the	ne, about 250 so They had to come ohnau. 1 llation in Rosto e were allegedly	During the night on 20 Jun were employed in Berlin. T Hermann Strasse toward Fro On 25 June, the KVP instal The troops quartered there	25X1X
	2
2. Comment. Further information is needed to determine the present location of the infantry unit previously quartered in Rostock. Elements of this unit ray have transferred to the zonal border in the area of Mecklenburg. stated that border police units moved from Mecklenburg to Thuringia.		in Rostock. Elements er in the area of	unit previously nsferred to the	location of the infantry of this unit ray have transfer Mecklenburg.	